Open vaccination days at the STILL Arena in Billbrook

STILL rolls up their sleeves

Hamburg, 08 December 2021 - The Hamburg-based company STILL is supporting the City of Hamburg's vaccination campaign by providing extensive premises and the necessary infrastructure for two open vaccination days organised by the social security authorities at the STILL Arena in Billbrook. On December 10, 2021, and January 7, 2022, from 12:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m., anyone over the age of twelve who is willing to be vaccinated can benefit from the offer without pre-registration. Primary, secondary and booster vaccinations will be offered and the vaccines available will be from Biontech, Moderna and Johnson & Johnson.

Taking responsibility is a matter of course for the Hamburg-based intralogistics company STILL. The company has been actively involved in the fight against the Corona virus since the beginning of the pandemic, for example with a special vaccination line for the workforce and donations of vehicles for system-relevant supply areas. Now STILL is making their events hall, known as the STILL Arena, in Berzeliusstraße in Hamburg Billbrook available to the City of Hamburg's social security office for two open vaccination days. The infrastructure - from furniture to routing to IT - will be organised by STILL as well.

"We can only overcome this pandemic if we stand together in solidarity," emphasises Frank Müller, Senior Vice President Brand Management / Sales & Service Steering STILL EMEA. "It is therefore a matter of course for us to support the city's vaccination campaign. And if we can use our resources to help provide even more Hamburg citizens with low-threshold access to a Corona vaccination, then we are very happy to

Here, too, the company has made premises available to support the containment of the pandemic and to offer employees an additional opportunity to protect themselves and implement the 3G regulation in the workplace (which stands for vaccinated, recovered, tested) with as little effort as possible.
